San Antonio's Real Estate Market

As we welcome 2025, we're pleased to present the January edition of our newsletter, featuring valuable insights from the final weeks of 2024. This month's update begins with an in-depth Market Report for San Antonio, offering a year-over-year comparison of key trends to help you stay informed on the latest market shifts. Compiled using data from the San Antonio Board of Realtors (SABOR), this report provides a clear picture of total sales, price movements, and overall market performance—an essential resource to guide your client interactions.

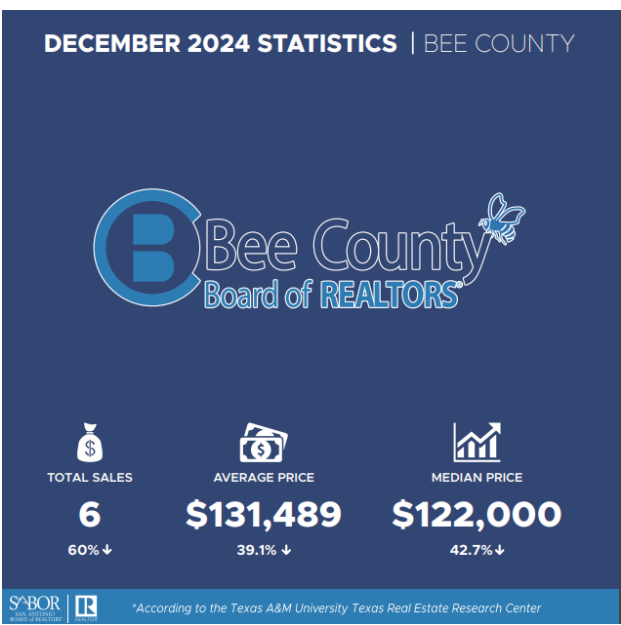

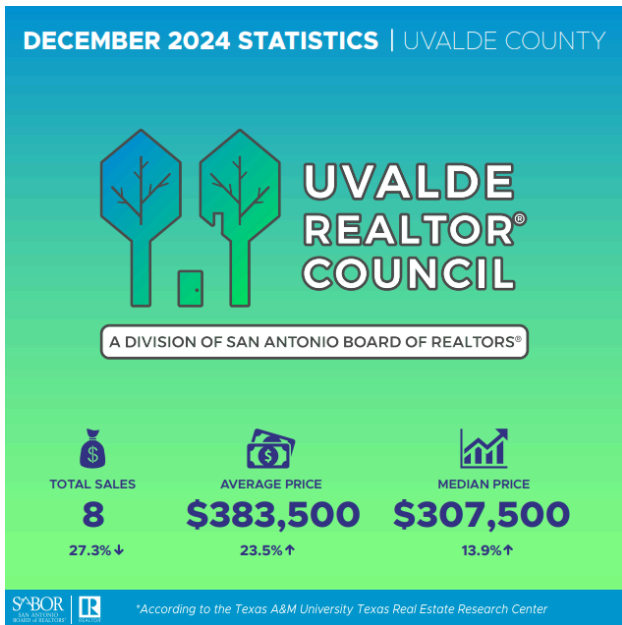

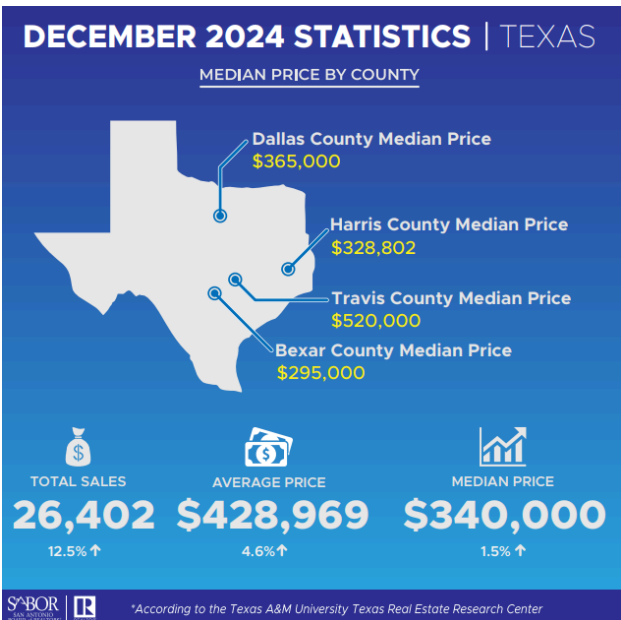

Following the Market Report, take a closer look at December's Week-in-Sales analysis, which highlights the most recent housing activity. With these insights, you'll be well-prepared to kick off the new year with confidence and expertise. Let's make 2025 a year of growth and continued success in real estate!
